

THE LOCAL NEWS.....

OF THE
CITY AND COUNTY

From Saturday's Daily.

Who will be the Carnival Queen?

Archie Lockhart is confined to his room with an attack of rheumatism.

Geo. P. Harrington, the Bradshaw mining man, returned last night from a trip to the northern part of the territory.

E. H. Mott, the McCabe merchant, is in Prescott this afternoon on a business trip. He reports McCabe very prosperous.

Mess Nellie Drake entertained the members of the Junior Euchre Club yesterday afternoon and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

Judge Pinner, for many years a leading attorney in the city of Chicago, has decided to make his home in Phoenix where his son is engaged in business.

Joseph Stephens, now of Los Angeles, but for many years a prominent cattle man of this county, is visiting relatives and friends in Williamson valley.

E. T. Smith, the sheep king of Soligman, returned to his home this morning after spending a couple of days in this vicinity trying to get sheep herders.

Poland, McCabe, Jerome, and Congress will all have candidates for the carnival queen. Only one of these, Miss Russell, of Poland, has been announced so far.

H. A. Suttle and wife, arrived in Prescott last night from their home in Peoria, Illinois. Mr. Suttle is engaged in the banking business and is also heavily interested in the sheep business, has been in Prescott for a short business trip but returned home this morning.

E. S. Gossney, a prominent business man of Flagstaff, being in the banking business and is also heavily interested in the sheep business, has been in Prescott for a short business trip but returned home this morning.

A. E. McNamara, of Duluth, Minn., and W. A. Haggott, of Idaho Springs, Colorado, brother of E. A. Haggott, superintendent of the Blue Bell mine, left for their homes this morning after a short business visit to this place.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a bright young man, who is willing to work, and can furnish letters of reference, has had experience in office work but will accept any honorable employment. Address Joseph P. Harrington, Prescott, Ariz.

The many friends of Miss Winifreda Gale will be pleased to hear that she is now able to walk about the house some and to be wheeled out of doors. There is no doubt now that what she will make a complete recovery from the terrible accident which came so near resulting fatally to her.

W. H. Miller, who has been chief dispatcher at Douglas for the El Paso and Southern Railway company, has resigned his position at that place and accepted a position as dispatcher for the S. F. P. & P. and arrived in Prescott a couple of days ago and has entered upon his duties in the office in this city.

The names of a number of young ladies have been suggested for queen of the merchants carnival, and the contest will soon open in real earnest. The committee has just completed the printing of several thousand blank ballots and the voting will commence at once. The ballots will be five cents each and the money obtained from the ballots will be used in purchasing robes for the queen and her maids and attendants.

Dr. S. J. Rogers, superintendent of the Arizona mission of the M. E. church, passed through Prescott this morning on his way to Jerome where he will make an official visitation of the church and will hold services tomorrow. From there he will go to Williams and Flagstaff. He expects to visit the Prescott church in the near future.

Wells H. Bates, the well known mining man, passed through on this morning's north-bound passenger on his way to Los Angeles. He has been spending several days at the Rincón mines, the old Welcome property, near Martinez, and expects to go east to Philadelphia and New York in about a week. He says things look fine at the mines.

The new lodge of Fraternal Brotherhood, No. 358, is making preparations to give their first grand ball on April 22. The members are working hard to make this a very pleasant event. Mrs. B. H. Smith will furnish the music, and the price of tickets will be, gentlemen $1.00, ladies 50c.

The following places will have ball boxes where ballots may be cast for carnival queen: Mansfield & Nolan, B. B. Co., R. H. Burnister & Sons Co., all the drug stores, the Wellington, Palace and the new one at the corner of the new for corner of the Prescott. The boxes will be open daily at two p. m. on Monday and Tuesday will be announced each day in the Journal-Miner.

The committee on carnival queen announces the names of Misses Daisy Dayton, Henrietta J. Harjin and Maude Clark as candidates from this city who have consented to enter the contest for carnival queen. Either of these popular young ladies would fill the coveted position in a most satisfactory manner. There will undoubtedly be other candidates out of the arena later on. Several of the outside towns are also preparing to try and capture the plumb.

E. H. Campbell, the Coconino county sheep man, who has been shearing his big band of sheep at Dewey, has completed the work of shearing and left this morning for his home at Flagstaff. He says on account of the clean and splendid condition of the wool the returns will be as heavy as he had expected they would. He will drive his sheep to Flagstaff at once and they will be grazed on the San Francisco forest reserve about sixteen miles from Flagstaff, he having received a permit to that effect from the government.

The Journal-Miner had the pleasure of a call today from Miss Della Russell, of Poland. Miss Russell has decided to enter the contest for queen of the carnival which is to be held in Prescott the first of next month. She is a very handsome and quietly appearing young lady and one that would fill the position in a charming manner. She resided in this city several months about a year ago, but is now residing at Poland; her father being the foreman at the Oriental mine. She will undoubtedly receive a large vote from that section of the county and stands a good chance of winning in the contest.

The New York Store, which is ever on the alert to please its customers and add to its immense volume of business, has decided to add another department to its already numerous departments. The new feature will be in the way of a dressmaking department. The services of Mrs. Smith, a first class modiste, of San Francisco, have been secured and she will have full charge of the dressmaking department. The ladies of Prescott and vicinity will find it very convenient to be able to step into the store, pick out the dress pattern they desire and leave their order and measure and have their dress delivered to them finished.

From Monday's Daily

C. W. Hummer was a Passenger to El Paso, Texas.

Cade Selry, the well known Santa Fe detective, is in town.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Young returned to Seligman this morning.

J. J. Fisher went to Jerome today on professional business.

John Bullard is in town from the Bullard mine, west of Martinez.

J. H. Hise has returned from his visit to Los Angeles with his family.

W. H. Constable was an arrival by this morning's train from the south.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge are recent arrivals from Cripple Creek, Colorado.

Captain W. A. Holbrook has returned to Whipple from a tour of inspecting the territorial militia.

Mrs. Roland Mosher, who has been quite ill with pneumonia for some time, is considerably improved today.

J. S. Smith, of the Jerome Canyon Copper company, returned to Los Angeles again today on mining business.

H. M. Gibbs, of Jerome, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for district attorney on the democratic ticket.

Dr. D. M. Purman, a well known physician and prominent resident of Phoenix, died in Los Angeles last week after a protracted illness.

H. W. Kent, a Milwaukee mining man, left for the east this morning after a visit of several days in this section on mining business.

Harry Hibben, of Coconino county, is out for the nomination for county recorder of that county. Mr. Hibben is the incumbent of the office.

Miss Daisy Dayton, positively declines to become a candidate for Queen of the Carnival, and moreover would decline the honor if elected.

Judge R. E. Sloan went to Court reporter W. S. Norval and Claggett from Kingman, yesterday, where the former will open a term of court today.

Besides the voting places announced in the Journal-Miner, where ballots may be cast for candidates for the queen, a ballot box has been located at P. M. Dillon's cigar store.

Miss Nellie Tharp on last Friday closed a very successful term of school at Del Rio. She expects to leave for her home in California in a few days to spend the summer vacation.

A. C. McQueen, claim agent for the S. F. P. & P. railroad, is foreman of a grand jury just impealed in Phoenix.

F. H. Burch, of the Southern Railway company, went to Jerome today to fill that town for the carnival in morning.

A new boot black stand, of three chairs, has been started on Cortez street against the Briley Drug company's store. It is quite a small affair and the proprietors have been giving free shines this afternoon.

T. G. Hunter and W. C. De Armond, of Philadelphia, who are interested in mining in this section, came up from the south on this morning's train. Mr. Hunter is accompanied by his wife and two boys and Mr. De Armond is accompanied by his wife.

Erza C. Bartlett arrived on last night's train from a three months' visit in the east. After a trip to Jerome to look after his property interests there Mr. Bartlett will go to Tucson where he makes his headquarters.

E. Clark, W. C. Stetson, and Will Robinson were passengers yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. Robinson will stop in San Francisco for a short visit with his family and will then go on to Portland, Oregon, where he expects to land permanently.

George Meade and family have moved into the Pentland house, on the corner of Gurley and Pleasant streets, recently vacated by R. A. Talbot and family.

Prescott has already challenged Phenix for a baseball game. Among the attractions proposed for carnival week is a baseball tournament with a prize of $100.

Ed S. Campbell, of the Stark Mining company, came into Prescott from the properties yesterday afternoon to look after the mill and cyaniding plant running full capacity and with splendid results.

Mrs. Beverly Cox gave a card party at her home in Phenix, on Monday afternoon, in honor of the arrival of her daughter, who is visiting in this city.

Some fine large blocks of granite are being hauled to the site of the Elks' building. The first few feet of the wall will be built entirely of granite. The rock is being cut ready for placing in the walls at a quarry west of town.

Ed Shumate has just completed arrangements for a big ball game at Jerome King and Phenix, alias, Big Excursion will be run from the Big Brown and also from Phenix to witness the game.

The territorial democratic central committee is in session today to arrange for the time and place of holding the territorial convention to elect delegates to the St. Louis convention. Phenix, Tucson and Douglas are spoken of for the place of holding the convention.

Miss Mary Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Burke, celebrated her fourteenth birthday yesterday, and entertained a large number of her girl and boy friends. The young folks had a jolly time for about three or four hours during the afternoon and evening.

Charles Kaible has been appointed by Charles Assessor, D. J. Sullivan as deputy assessor. The appointment is certainly an excellent one as Mr.

work this morning after their week's vacation. While the high school building was not entirely completed the high school was opened there this morning. As soon as the building is completed the Journal-Miner will have a full detailed description of the place.

Dr. F. H. Waite, the Williams dentist, formerly a resident of Prescott, was a passenger on this morning's north bound train. He was accompanied by his little daughter. Mrs. Waite went to Phenix with them a few days since for the benefit of her health and will remain there for some time.

At the annual meeting of the Jerome fire department held on Wednesday evening, it was decided that the department would hold a grand carnival of sports in Jerome on July Fourth, 1904, says the News. The boys propose to do things on a grand scale, and will start in at once to prepare for a successful day and days of sports.

Supt. J. L. McLaughlin, of the Henrietta mine, came in from the property this afternoon. He was accompanied by J. C. Rankin, who had been visiting the property for several days. Mr. Rankin is very heavily interested in this and several other properties in this county and has been here for some time looking after his interests.

William H. Cokely, proprietor of the Mountaineer hotel, at Crown King is in town today. He says the grade of the railroad is completed and the track is within about three quarters of a mile of Crown King camp now. The first train is expected in Crown King next Saturday. As soon as the track is completed and in shape the railroad will give an excursion to the camp.

Ballot boxes will be found at the following places where you can vote for your choice for queen of the carnival at five cents per vote: B. B. Co., R. H. Burnister & Sons Co., Mansfield & Nolan, and at P. M. Dillon's cigar store. Owing to the lateness in getting the ballot boxes installed today, the vote will not be counted until tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. It is said.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. Coffin of Del Rio, is the guest of Mrs. E. S. Clark.

Dr. G. W. Vickers came up this morning from Phenix.

Mrs. A. W. McNash, who has been quite sick for several days is considerably improved today.

Erza C. Bartlett went over to Jerome this morning to look after his business interests in that place.

Dr. Southworth's father and aunt arrived in Prescott last night for a visit with the doctor and his wife.

Thomas Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Coleman, is confined to his bed with a light attack of pneumonia.

A fire alarm was sounded at 10:30 last night. The fire happened to be at Whipple where an old shack was burned.

The street railway force crossed Cortez street today and are now working their way up the hill on Gurley street.

A. C. McQueen, claim agent for the S. F. P. & P. railroad, is foreman of a grand jury just impealed in Phoenix.

F. H. Burch, of the Southern Railway company, went to Jerome today to fill that town for the carnival in morning.

A new boot black stand, of three chairs, has been started on Cortez street against the Briley Drug company's store. It is quite a small affair and the proprietors have been giving free shines this afternoon.

T. G. Hunter and W. C. De Armond, of Philadelphia, who are interested in mining in this section, came up from the south on this morning's train. Mr. Hunter is accompanied by his wife and two boys and Mr. De Armond is accompanied by his wife.

Erza C. Bartlett arrived on last night's train from a three months' visit in the east. After a trip to Jerome to look after his property interests there Mr. Bartlett will go to Tucson where he makes his headquarters.

E. Clark, W. C. Stetson, and Will Robinson were passengers yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. Robinson will stop in San Francisco for a short visit with his family and will then go on to Portland, Oregon, where he expects to land permanently.

George Meade and family have moved into the Pentland house, on the corner of Gurley and Pleasant streets, recently vacated by R. A. Talbot and family.

Prescott has already challenged Phenix for a baseball game. Among the attractions proposed for carnival week is a baseball tournament with a prize of $100.

Ed S. Campbell, of the Stark Mining company, came into Prescott from the properties yesterday afternoon to look after the mill and cyaniding plant running full capacity and with splendid results.

Mrs. Beverly Cox gave a card party at her home in Phenix, on Monday afternoon, in honor of the arrival of her daughter, who is visiting in this city.

Some fine large blocks of granite are being hauled to the site of the Elks' building. The first few feet of the wall will be built entirely of granite. The rock is being cut ready for placing in the walls at a quarry west of town.

Ed Shumate has just completed arrangements for a big ball game at Jerome King and Phenix, alias, Big Excursion will be run from the Big Brown and also from Phenix to witness the game.

The territorial democratic central committee is in session today to arrange for the time and place of holding the territorial convention to elect delegates to the St. Louis convention. Phenix, Tucson and Douglas are spoken of for the place of holding the convention.

Miss Mary Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Burke, celebrated her fourteenth birthday yesterday, and entertained a large number of her girl and boy friends. The young folks had a jolly time for about three or four hours during the afternoon and evening.

Charles Kaible has been appointed by Charles Assessor, D. J. Sullivan as deputy assessor. The appointment is certainly an excellent one as Mr.

Raible is one of the most popular and highly respected young gentlemen of this county and one whose honesty and integrity cannot be questioned.

Judge Doan issued an injunction in Solomonville on Monday restraining the Arizona & Eastern railroad from interfering in any way with the construction of the Phenix & Eastern railroad. The A. & E. company, it is charged, attempted to take possession of the line of the P. & E. and have had a force of men at work grading on it.

The vote for Carnival Queen at two o'clock this afternoon stood as follows: Miss Della Russell, 55; Maud Clark, 41; Henrietta Hartman 70; scattering 11. Voting has just commenced and there seems to be a great deal of interest taken in it, and there is a prospect of an exciting and friendly contest.

Aided by a civilian confederate, two prisoners made their escape from Whipple yesterday afternoon. The civilian, supposed to be a stranger here got behind the armed guard who was guarding the prisoners, pinning his arms the three men took his gun from him and then gaged him and tied him to a tree and the three hastily took their departure.

Figures compiled by the general passenger agent of the Santa Fe show an enormous increase in west-bound passenger travel for the month of March over that of the same month in 1903. The company brought 6339 passengers to California during the thirty days of last month. For the same period last year the number was 3253. This includes both first and second class passengers.

Dr. Nestor A. Young, and his son, W. G. Young, who have been in this section for several days, left today for the east. Dr. Young is very prominent in mining circles. He made an examination of the United Verde mine for W. A. Clark, prior to its being purchased by the latter, his report being favorable. Dr. Young is at the present time prominently identified with the mining interests of this section.

Bradstreet's report for March says that the crop prospects for Southern California improved during the first part of the month. It was a month of generous rain and good growing weather. The grain crop will be only fair in most favored sections, but good crop of hay is assured and prospects are now good for normal acreage planting to beans and corn.

A telegram from Kingman says that a corporation has been organized to build a railroad from Peach Springs to the Santa Fe Pacific railroad to Diamond Canyon, a distance of twenty miles. The road will traverse one of the most rugged and picturesque canyon countries between the Gate of Lodore and Black Canyon. It will run to the water's edge and will afford tourists a view of the deepest part of the great canyon from the bottom. At the river, a towering peak affords a view of the wonderful volcanic cones on the Tonawap plateau and the castellated cliffs of the Grand Canyon for more than fifty miles.

District Attorney E. M. Doe, of Coconino county, states that in the event that Coconino county, upon proper showing by Mr. Haggott, should bring suit and revoke the charter given R. H. Cameron and associates, who are operating the Bright Angel trail, he would make an effort to have the county conduct the trail and collect the tolls. In that event all rivalry would be stopped and the revenue on toll collection would go a long way toward paying the county indebtedness. The railroad company is trying to prevent Cameron from maintaining his toll gates on the Bright Angel trail.

Speaking of the closing night of the carnival at Albuquerque the Journal of that city says: "It is worth while to note that the whole week has been orderly in every way. No better behaved set of people ever invaded Albuquerque than Mr. Reiss' invader company. The police have maintained single order as a result of the presence of the carnival, and too much cannot be said of the high character of the attractions. Mr. Reiss will find a ready welcome in Albuquerque when he returns to winter quarters. The company will leave early this morning for a special train of thirty cars, for El Paso, where they will appear under the auspices of the 'Ladies' lodge."

H. W. Leskey & Co., are mourning the loss of several dollars worth of clothing and about $45 in jewelry. This morning a Mexican came into the store and purchased about $15 worth of clothing and presented in payment a check from a well known gentleman whose check is always good. Mr. Leskey took out the amount of the purchase and returned the Mexican the balance, some $15 cash. As soon as the Mexican left Mr. Leskey presented the check and was informed that the check had been stolen from the owner and that payment had been stopped on it. The officers were out hunting for the thief and the Mexican so far has proved fruitless.

The new hotel, Mountaineer, at Crown King, will take proper care of you when in that section. 4311xlm

Some fine large blocks of granite are being hauled to the site of the Elks' building. The first few feet of the wall will be built entirely of granite. The rock is being cut ready for placing in the walls at a quarry west of town.

Ed Shumate has just completed arrangements for a big ball game at Jerome King and Phenix, alias, Big Excursion will be run from the Big Brown and also from Phenix to witness the game.

The territorial democratic central committee is in session today to arrange for the time and place of holding the territorial convention to elect delegates to the St. Louis convention. Phenix, Tucson and Douglas are spoken of for the place of holding the convention.

Miss Mary Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Burke, celebrated her fourteenth birthday yesterday, and entertained a large number of her girl and boy friends. The young folks had a jolly time for about three or four hours during the afternoon and evening.

Charles Kaible has been appointed by Charles Assessor, D. J. Sullivan as deputy assessor. The appointment is certainly an excellent one as Mr.

work this morning after their week's vacation. While the high school building was not entirely completed the high school was opened there this morning. As soon as the building is completed the Journal-Miner will have a full detailed description of the place.

Dr. F. H. Waite, the Williams dentist, formerly a resident of Prescott, was a passenger on this morning's north bound train. He was accompanied by his little daughter. Mrs. Waite went to Phenix with them a few days since for the benefit of her health and will remain there for some time.

At the annual meeting of the Jerome fire department held on Wednesday evening, it was decided that the department would hold a grand carnival of sports in Jerome on July Fourth, 1904, says the News. The boys propose to do things on a grand scale, and will start in at once to prepare for a successful day and days of sports.

Supt. J. L. McLaughlin, of the Henrietta mine, came in from the property this afternoon. He was accompanied by J. C. Rankin, who had been visiting the property for several days. Mr. Rankin is very heavily interested in this and several other properties in this county and has been here for some time looking after his interests.

William H. Cokely, proprietor of the Mountaineer hotel, at Crown King is in town today. He says the grade of the railroad is completed and the track is within about three quarters of a mile of Crown King camp now. The first train is expected in Crown King next Saturday. As soon as the track is completed and in shape the railroad will give an excursion to the camp.

Ballot boxes will be found at the following places where you can vote for your choice for queen of the carnival at five cents per vote: B. B. Co., R. H. Burnister & Sons Co., Mansfield & Nolan, and at P. M. Dillon's cigar store. Owing to the lateness in getting the ballot boxes installed today, the vote will not be counted until tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. It is said.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. Coffin of Del Rio, is the guest of Mrs. E. S. Clark.

Dr. G. W. Vickers came up this morning from Phenix.

Mrs. A. W. McNash, who has been quite sick for several days is considerably improved today.

Erza C. Bartlett went over to Jerome this morning to look after his business interests in that place.

Dr. Southworth's father and aunt arrived in Prescott last night for a visit with the doctor and his wife.

Thomas Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Coleman, is confined to his bed with a light attack of pneumonia.

A fire alarm was sounded at 10:30 last night. The fire happened to be at Whipple where an old shack was burned.

The street railway force crossed Cortez street today and are now working their way up the hill on Gurley street.

A. C. McQueen, claim agent for the S. F. P. & P. railroad, is foreman of a grand jury just impealed in Phoenix.

F. H. Burch, of the Southern Railway company, went to Jerome today to fill that town for the carnival in morning.

A new boot black stand, of three chairs, has been started on Cortez street against the Briley Drug company's store. It is quite a small affair and the proprietors have been giving free shines this afternoon.

T. G. Hunter and W. C. De Armond, of Philadelphia, who are interested in mining in this section, came up from the south on this morning's train. Mr. Hunter is accompanied by his wife and two boys and Mr. De Armond is accompanied by his wife.

Erza C. Bartlett arrived on last night's train from a three months' visit in the east. After a trip to Jerome to look after his property interests there Mr. Bartlett will go to Tucson where he makes his headquarters.

E. Clark, W. C. Stetson, and Will Robinson were passengers yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. Robinson will stop in San Francisco for a short visit with his family and will then go on to Portland, Oregon, where he expects to land permanently.

George Meade and family have moved into the Pentland house, on the corner of Gurley and Pleasant streets, recently vacated by R. A. Talbot and family.

Prescott has already challenged Phenix for a baseball game. Among the attractions proposed for carnival week is a baseball tournament with a prize of $100.

Ed S. Campbell, of the Stark Mining company, came into Prescott from the properties yesterday afternoon to look after the mill and cyaniding plant running full capacity and with splendid results.

Mrs. Beverly Cox gave a card party at her home in Phenix, on Monday afternoon, in honor of the arrival of her daughter, who is visiting in this city.

Some fine large blocks of granite are being hauled to the site of the Elks' building. The first few feet of the wall will be built entirely of granite. The rock is being cut ready for placing in the walls at a quarry west of town.

Ed Shumate has just completed arrangements for a big ball game at Jerome King and Phenix, alias, Big Excursion will be run from the Big Brown and also from Phenix to witness the game.

The territorial democratic central committee is in session today to arrange for the time and place of holding the territorial convention to elect delegates to the St. Louis convention. Phenix, Tucson and Douglas are spoken of for the place of holding the convention.

Miss Mary Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Burke, celebrated her fourteenth birthday yesterday, and entertained a large number of her girl and boy friends. The young folks had a jolly time for about three or four hours during the afternoon and evening.

HUNTING AN ISSUE.

No. 664

Application for a Patent.

U. S. Land Office, Prescott, Arizona, Mar. 25, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of the act of Congress, approved May 10, 1872, P. L. 42, Chapter 25, Section 2, George P. Harrington, whose postoffice address is Crown King, Yavapai county, Arizona, has this day filed his application for a patent for 250,000 linear feet of the Alloy and Central veins in vein, bearing gold and silver, with surface ground 600 feet in width, situated in Tiger mining district, Yavapai county, Territory of Arizona, and designated by the field notes and official plat in the office of the register of the Prescott land district, as follows:

ALLOY LODE.

Beginning at corner No. 1, also corner No. 4, Cleveland lode, survey No. 1722, where is a porphyry stone 10 1/2 ins. in diameter, stone marked A-1-1826; same stone marked B-1-1826; same stone marked C-1-1826; same stone marked D-1-1826; same stone marked E-1-1826; same stone marked F-1-1826; same stone marked G-1-1826; same stone marked H-1-1826; same stone marked I-1-1826; same stone marked J-1-1826; same stone marked K-1-1826; same stone marked L-1-1826; same stone marked M-1-1826; same stone marked N-1-1826; same stone marked O-1-1826; same stone marked P-1-1826; same stone marked Q-1-1826; same stone marked R-1-1826; same stone marked S-1-1826; same stone marked T-1-1826; same stone marked U-1-1826; same stone marked V-1-1826; same stone marked W-1-1826; same stone marked X-1-1826; same stone marked Y-1-1826; same stone marked Z-1-1826; same stone marked A-1-1827; same stone marked B-1-1827; same stone marked C-1-1827; same stone marked D-1-1827; same stone marked E-1-1827; same stone marked F-1-1827; same stone marked G-1-1827; same stone marked H-1-1827; same stone marked I-1-1827; same stone marked J-1-1827; same stone marked K-1-1827; same stone marked L-1-1827; same stone marked M-1-1827; same stone marked N-1-1827; same stone marked O-1-1827; same stone marked P-1-1827; same stone marked Q-1-1827; same stone marked R-1-1827; same stone marked S-1-1827; same stone marked T-1-1827; same stone marked U-1-1827; same stone marked V-1-1827; same stone marked W-1-1827; same stone marked X-1-1827; same stone marked Y-1-1827; same stone marked Z-1-1827; same stone marked A-1-1828; same stone marked B-1-1828; same stone marked C-1-1828; same stone marked D-1-1828; same stone marked E-1-1828; same stone marked F-1-1828; same stone marked G-1-1828; same stone marked H-1-1828; same stone marked I-1-1828; same stone marked J-1-1828; same stone marked K-1-1828; same stone marked L-1-1828; same stone marked M-1-1828; same stone marked N-1-1828; same stone marked O-1-1828; same stone marked P-1-1828; same stone marked Q-1-1828; same stone marked R-1-1828